

LOVE SERVES

Jesus is the Servant-King.

Jesus tells His disciples, "Love as I have loved you." Jesus, the King of Kings, knelt before His servants and cleaned their dirty feet. Similarly, He went to the cross to wash sin from His disciples' souls. Through water and the blood, Jesus' power is realized in humility, His love in acts of service. His disciples are kingdom-servants. They live the non-negotiable command to love like their King. In Christian tradition, the towel and basin symbolize this identity.

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

- John 13:34-35